Campus Resources

☐ Academic Support - The Learning Resource Center (LRC) (Jordan Hall 136):

Coordinates services and resources that promote academic success for Butler students. Academic success resources include LC100 (Strategies for Success course), Academic Success Workshops, and individualized academic coaching sessions. The office also supports students who may be in transition between majors, as well as students who have not yet decided on a particular field of study. For more information about the LRC, call 940-9308, email learning@butler.edu, or visit the LRC website at www.butler.edu/learning.

Tutoring:

- Departmental Study Tables are open to all students seeking tutoring assistance. The study table schedule is available to students from course instructors, the LRC office (Jordan Hall 136), or at www.butler.edu/learning/tutoring-study-tables/study-tables/.
- Individualized Peer Tutoring is available upon professor recommendation. For additional information about individual tutoring, contact the LRC office at 940-9308, email learning@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/learning/tutoring-study-tables/peer-tutoring/.
- Speakers Lab (Fairbanks 140 & 250) assists students with speeches and presentations (both individual and group). The peer tutors can help you or your group with refining your topic, researching your topic, organizing your research, and effectively presenting your speech. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 940-8354 or visit the website at www.butler.edu/speakers-lab.
- Writers’ Studio Peer Tutoring Program (Jordan Hall 304) assists students with any writing task (e.g., generating ideas, forming a thesis, essays, lab reports, applications, resumes, etc.). Students may drop in or call for an appointment. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 940-9804, email writers@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/writers-studio.

☐ Center for Faith and Vocation (“Blue House” across from the Schrott Center):

Provides students with space to reflect on faith and spirituality during their time at Butler. For additional information, call 923-7253, email cfv@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/faith-vocation.

☐ Center for Global Education (Jordan Hall 212):

Provides information to students about obtaining a global education by studying abroad. For more information, contact the office at 940-6567, email jmalanne@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/global-education.

☐ Center for High Achievement and Scholarly Engagement (CHASE) (Jordan Hall 153):

Houses the Honors Program, and supports students interested in pursuing undergraduate research and students writing an undergraduate thesis. This office also offers graduate and professional school advising. For more information, call 940-9723, email chase@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/scholarly-engagement.

☐ Counseling and Consultation Services (Health and Recreation Complex 120):

Provides individual, couples, and group counseling for students dealing with issues related to personal, academic, career, and social areas of life. This is an excellent resource for students who have concerns about test anxiety or stress management. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 940-9385 or visit the website at www.butler.edu/counseling-services.

☐ Financial Aid (Robertson Hall, Lower Level):

Provides information about financial support and information on the cost and value of a Butler education, what to expect throughout the year, and financial aid tips and strategies. For assistance from a financial aid counselor, call 940-8200, email finaid@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/financial-aid.
Greek Life (Atherton Union 312):
For information regarding fraternities and sororities, contact the Director of Greek Life and Orientation, Becky Druetzler, at 940-6590, email bdruetzl@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/greek-life.

Health Services (Health and Recreation Complex 110):
Provides enrolled students with outpatient health care services and patient education from a team of RNs and medical doctors. For information regarding health-related issues, contact the office at 940-9385, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/health-services.

Internship and Career Services/Student Employment (Atherton Union 315):
Provides the following services to students: career planning, internship and job search resources, career expo and job fairs, workshops and networking events, and on-campus employment services. Contact the office at 940-9383, email career@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/career.

Libraries:
The Irwin Library and Ruth Lilly Science Library are both available to students. For additional information, call the Irwin Library at 940-9227 or the Science Library at 940-9401, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/library.

Office of Diversity Programs (Atherton Union 004):
Focuses on promoting diversity and multicultural awareness by holding and sponsoring events and programs throughout the year. For information regarding multicultural and international programming and services, call 940-6570, email diversitycenter@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/diversity.

Programs for Leadership and Service Education (PuLSE) (Atherton Union 101):
Provides students an opportunity to learn about, and get involved with, campus events and organizations and to work on team-building and goal-setting within organizations. For information, call 940-9262, email involvement@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/involvement.

Registration and Records (Jordan Hall 133):
For information about the academic calendar, registration, grades, transcripts, transfer and AP credit information, call 940-9203, email registrar@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/registrar.

Residence Life (Atherton Union 303):
For information about residence hall living, room and board agreements, etc., contact the office at 940-9458, email reslife@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/residence-life.

Student Accounts (Jordan Hall 102):
Provides electronic billing statements, payments, and free check-cashing service; administers student paychecks; and issues refund checks. For questions, call 940-9353, email studentaccounts@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/student-accounts.

Student Disability Services (SDS) (Jordan Hall 136):
To report a documented disability, request accommodations, and inquire about services, call the SDS office at 940-9308, email sds@butler.edu, or visit the website at www.butler.edu/disability.