MORE. This simple word describes the opportunities you’ll have at the Butler University School of Music.

DOUBLE REED STUDIOS

Pam French, oboe
Doug Spanioli, bassoon
Kelly Swensson, bassoon

Advantages of studying double reeds at Butler:
- Well-equipped reed room
- Variety of outstanding performing ensembles led by Michael Colburn, Richard Auldon Clark, and others
- Paid teaching opportunities through the Butler Community Arts School
- Professional playing gigs in and around Indianapolis
- Undergraduate degrees include performance, education, composition, arts administration, and double majors
- Graduate degrees include performance, education, history, and composition

Pam French, oboe
- Instructor of Oboe at Butler University
- Acting Principal Oboe, Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra; 2nd Oboe, ICO since 2002
- Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra wind quintet, “Circle City Winds” (founding member)
- Freelance oboist in NYC and Indianapolis; performances with top orchestras, Broadway shows, and in recording studios
- Presenter at several IDRS conferences
Contact: pfrench@butler.edu or 317-940-8694

Doug Spanioli, bassoon
- Professor of Music and Coordinator of Woodwinds at Butler University
- Instructor of Bassoon at the world-renowned Interlochen Arts Camp
- Presented masterclasses at the Royal Academy of Music (London), the St. Petersburg (Russia) Conservatory, and the Music for All National Festival
- Yamaha Artist/Clinician
Contact: dspaniol@butler.edu or 317-940-8368

Kelly Swensson, bassoon
- Instructor of Bassoon at Butler University
- Freelance bassoonist; performances with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra, Louisville Orchestra, and in recording studios
- Concerto performances with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, Butler University Symphony Orchestra, and others
- 2012 Finalist in the international Meg Quigley Vivaldi Competition; 2010 Semi-Finalist
Contact: kswensso@butler.edu or 317-940-8368

The 2nd Annual Butler University Double Reed Day will be January 24, 2015 at the Schrott Center for the Arts, with special guests Carlos Coelho and Paul Nordby. For schedule and registration, visit www.butler.edu/music/doublereedday

Butler offers audition award scholarships to qualified oboists and bassoonists who wish to major in music.
Ensemble Participation Scholarships are available for non-music majors who wish to participate in major ensembles.